

NEW HAVEN CITY PLAN COMMISSION ADVISORY REPORT

RE: ORDER OF THE BOARD OF ALDERS designating the corner of Charles Street and Dixwell Avenue as “Bishop James Varick Corner” to honor him for his many contributions to New Haven history.

REPORT: 1547-09
ADVICE: Approval

BACKGROUND

Alder Steven Winter has submitted an order proposing the northwest corner of Charles Street and Dixwell Avenue be permanently designated “Bishop James Varick Corner” to honor the Bishop for his many contributions to New Haven history.

PLANNING CONSIDERATIONS

Name changes require the support of the local alder and a petition with over 200 signatures. Alder Winter has submitted both a letter of support and a petition with 355 signatures – 241 from the neighborhood, and 114 for other city residents.

ADVICE

The Commission finds the Order in the best interest of the City and recommends approval.
