

Request for Qualifications and Proposal for Legal Services for the New Haven Civilian Review Board

The New Haven Corporation Counsel seeks submission of experience, qualifications, and proposals from lawyers and/or law firms interested in advising the City's Civilian Review Board (the "CRB"). Counsel for the CRB will provide, upon request:

- a. Advice and counsel to the CRB in matters in conflict with other City departments or City entities, including representation, as necessary;
- b. Advice and counsel necessary for the CRB to comply with City ordinance and state law;
- c. Advice and counsel proposed amendments to City ordinance governing the CRB;
- d. Advice concerning complaints, as necessary; and
- e. Such additional advice as is necessary for the CRB to meet its obligations.

CRB's counsel may seek the assistance of the Office of the Corporation Counsel, as appropriate. Please furnish:

1. Background and experience of lawyer(s) who will advise the CRB
2. Client references
3. Fee proposal (subject to negotiation)

Members of the CRB will form the selection committee.
