CLOSED CASES – December 2023

- IA Case No: 22C-040
- Date Received: June 1, 2022
- Complainant: Mamie Rogers
- Officer(s): Officer L. Rivera
- Reviewed by: Member(s) Fawcett, Comins, Rivera

Summary: On June 1st, 2022 the Office of Internal Affairs received a civilian complaint from Mamie Rogers. Rogers stated on her complaint form that her son, Derek Cannon, had been “Brutally attacked” by a subject back in August of 2020. Cannon filed a police report with Officer Luis Rivera about the incident, but she claimed there had been “no communication from police” and the victim’s advocate they were working with told them “There has been no action on the case.” Shortly after this complaint was filed, Ofc. Rivera was placed on administrative leave for an unrelated incident. He did not return to work and therefore could not be interviewed regarding this matter.

- IA Case No: 22C-065
- Date Received: September 30, 2022
- Complainant: Freddy Pickette
- Officer(s): Officer M. Natale
- Reviewed by: Member(s) Fawcett, Comins, Rivera

Summary: On September 30th, 2022, the Office of Internal Affairs received a civilian complaint from Freddy Pickette. Pickette stated the vehicle he had been driving was towed from the street and he was told he had to go to court for motor vehicle charges. It had been proven that Pickette’s vehicle was not properly registered or insured, which therefore is not allowed on city streets and can be towed, regardless of the vehicle being in motion or not.

- IA Case No: 23C-002
- Date Received: January 8, 2023
- Complainant: Diamond Davis
- Officer(s): Officer A. McKernan
- Reviewed by: Member(s) Fawcett, Comins, Rivera

Summary: On January 8th, 2023 the Office of Internal Affairs received a civilian complaint from Diamond Davis. Davis stated in her complaint form she felt she had been wrongfully arrested by Officer Ashley McKernan, after the officer came to investigate a neighbor dispute between Davis and a neighbor down the hall from her. Officers responded on scene and spoke with both parties separately and were given different accounts of what happened. Both females sustained visible injuries because of the altercation, with the other party having more visible injuries and going to the hospital for further evaluation. Based on the evidence and the statements provided, Ofc. McKernan had enough probable cause to charge both parties with Assault and Breach of Peace.
